

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

Sponsors are an important part of the continuing success of the Science Games. Without your assistance, we would not be able to take engineering, geoscience, and science exploration out of the classroom and into the community.

In 2021, Engineers and Geoscientists BC engaged students and volunteers around the province with our new virtual program. Over 100 students participated! Check out our Science Games KudoBoard to see how much fun our 2021 participants had at the Science Games.

Capitalizing on that success, our 2022 program is going virtual again and aims to reach even more students around BC!

Your funds will help us supply activity materials to children, parents, and teachers across the province to learn the importance of engineering, geoscience, and general science.

2022 SCIENCE GAMES ACTIVITIES

With a focus on collaboration, connection, discovery, and fun, students will embark on a 3-week science journey in Spring 2022. These interactive science activities will be held over three Saturdays at the end of February and the beginning of March.

Because of the success of our Meet an Expert Sessions in 2021, we'll be hosting these events again. Meet an Expert Sessions provide participants with an opportunity to learn more about different engineering and geoscience disciplines and careers in these fields.
