

Resignation of Membership

To resign your membership in good standing, please complete the section below, or select the 'resignation' option in your online account. Members who resign in good standing and later wish to re-apply for membership or licence will be subject to the Return to Practice Policy or the Reinstatement Requirements for non-practising membership, including members-in-training. Details are available at egbc.ca/Resuming-Practice-Rights.

- I hereby declare that I wish to resign my membership with Engineers and Geoscientists BC and I am aware that members who resign are prohibited from practicing professional engineering or geoscience in British Columbia and from using any title protected under the Engineers and Geoscientists Act. I acknowledge that if I wish to reinstate my membership with practice rights, I must comply with the Reinstatement and Resumption of Practice requirements. I am also aware that resignation from Engineers and Geoscientists BC will result in loss of coverage under the Secondary Liability Insurance policy and loss of eligibility for Engineers Canada and Engineers and Geoscientists BC sponsored insurance plans and other affinity programs unless I am eligible through another province or territory.

Medically Unfit to Work

- $0 - Medically Unfit to Work. Members selecting this option will be required to do so each year. Please return this signed form with your request by mail or to register@egbc.ca. Note that this is a Non-Practising member status.

Request for Reduced Annual Fees for 2020 Membership

Members who have an annual "Active Income" of $31,000 or less are eligible for reduced fees. "Active Income" includes gross income from all employment or director's fees and/or net income from self-employment; it does not include pension or other retirement income, investment income, unemployment insurance income, support payments, scholarships, bursaries or disability income. All other sources of income are considered "active."

The reduced fee is 50% of the annual membership fee. Prorated membership fees and one-time license fees are not eligible for fee reduction. To request reduced fees, please complete the section below, and return with your payment. Members who have a status of non-practising or retired are not eligible for the reduced fee option.

- I hereby declare that the total of my gross annual active income before tax is $31,000 or less. I understand that members on reduced fee status may be requested to supply proof of income. I have indicated my request for reduced fee status by checking one of the boxes below, and have enclosed payment (if applicable) with this form.
 - Reduced Fees - Please complete the fee payment page and return this signed declaration with your payment.
