

Guests Appearing Before Council

- 1 Guest presentations are encouraged. The President may allow all reasonable requests to address Council.
- 2 Particular preference should be given to those guests who have opinions on current issues before Council.
- 3 Guest presentations should generally be limited to 30 minutes unless there is convincing reason for more time to be allotted.
- 4 Requests to address Council on matters related to investigation and discipline matters should be denied in accordance with Council's policy on "Oversight of the Investigation and Discipline Committees".
- 5 The President may consider all requests which are relevant to the membership and the public and are within the APEGBC mandate.
